Notice Inviting RFP

Notice No. RFP/FITT/DMP/R&IPARK/2024/01

SECTION: I INSTRUCTION TO BIDDER (IB)

IB.1.

Foundation for Innovation & Technology Transfer herein after referred to as FITT invites tenders for imparting Consultancy on Disaster Management System and formation of Quick Response Team for inhouse Staffs and Officials of FITT posted at R&I Park IIT Delhi as per detailed terms and conditions furnished in the different clauses of the bid document.

The details of R&I Park: - The building comprises of 2,10,000 Square feet of super build up area. The building has four blocks with three blocks having configuration of G+6 and one block having configuration of G+3.

Legal Mandate: - Section 11 of the DM Act 2005 mandates that there shall be a National Disaster Management Plan (NDMP) for the whole of India. The NDMP complies with the National Policy on Disaster Management (NPDM) of 2009 and conforms to the provisions of the DM Act making it mandatory for the various central ministries and departments to have adequate DM plans.

While the NDMP will pertain to the disaster management for the whole of the country, the hazard-specific nodal ministries and departments notified by the Government of India will prepare detailed DM plans specific to the disaster assigned. As per Section 37 of the DM Act, every ministry and department of the Government of India, be it hazard-specific nodal ministries or not, shall prepare comprehensive DM plans detailing how each of them will contribute to the national efforts in the domains of disaster prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery.

As per the mandate of the DM Act, the NDMP assigns specific and general responsibilities to all ministries and departments for disaster management. The DM Act enjoins the NDMP to assign necessary responsibilities to various ministries to support and implement the plan. Therefore, it is incumbent on all ministries to accept all the implicit and explicit responsibilities mentioned in the NDMP even if they are beyond what are explicitly mentioned in the normal rules of business. Disaster management requires assumption of responsibilities beyond the normal functioning. The NDMP will be complemented by separate contingency plans, SOPs, manuals, and guidelines at all levels of the multi-tiered governance system.

Agenda of Tender: -

- a) Mitigation and Risk Reduction: Disaster management focuses on mitigating the impact of disasters and reducing risks. By identifying potential hazards, assessing vulnerabilities, and implementing preventive measures, it aims to minimize the severity of disasters. This proactive approach helps to protect lives, infrastructure, and the environment.
- b) Saving Lives: The primary goal of disaster management is to save lives. It involves developing early warning systems, evacuation plans, and emergency response strategies to ensure that people receive timely assistance and can safely navigate through disasters. Effective disaster management can significantly reduce casualties and prevent loss of life.
- c) Protecting Infrastructure and Assets: Disasters can cause extensive damage to infrastructure, including buildings, roads, bridges, and utilities. By incorporating disaster-resistant designs, implementing construction codes, and practicing land-use planning, disaster management helps in safeguarding critical infrastructure and minimizing economic losses.
- d) Ensuring Continuity of Essential Services: Disasters can disrupt essential services such as electricity, water supply, communication networks, and healthcare systems. Disaster management emphasizes the development of resilient systems and infrastructure to ensure the continuity of these services during and after disasters. This enables communities to recover quickly and return to normalcy.
- e) Economic Stability: Disasters have significant economic consequences, including the loss of livelihoods, business closures, and increased public expenditure for recovery and reconstruction.

Effective disaster management reduces the economic impact by promoting preparedness, response, and recovery measures. It enables faster rehabilitation and reconstruction, facilitating the restoration of economic activities and minimizing long-term financial burdens.

- f) Community Resilience: Disaster management fosters community resilience by empowering individuals, organizations, and communities to prepare for and respond to disasters. It promotes awareness, education, and capacity-building initiatives to enhance disaster preparedness and response capabilities at all levels. Building community resilience not only helps during disasters but also improves overall disaster preparedness and response in the long run.
- g) Environmental Protection: Disaster management incorporates environmental considerations to reduce the impact of disasters on the environment. It emphasizes sustainable practices, ecological rehabilitation, and measures to minimize environmental pollution during and after disasters. By preserving natural resources and ecosystems, disaster management contributes to long-term environmental sustainability.
- h) Overall, the importance of building disaster management lies in its ability to save lives, protect infrastructure, ensure essential services, promote economic stability, foster community resilience, protect the environment, and facilitate international cooperation. By taking a comprehensive and proactive approach, disaster management plays a crucial role in reducing the impact of disasters and building sustainable and resilient communities.
